

Heritage Malta

WHO WE ARE

As guardians of over 8,000 years of history, Heritage Malta is the national agency for museums, conservation practice, and cultural heritage.

With a portfolio that encompasses archeological sites, baroque auberges and palaces, catacombs, forts, natural landscapes, and UNESCO-listed Neolithic monuments, Heritage Malta is the face of the Maltese Islands. More than simply advancing the stock of intellectual and cultural capital, our vocation is to offer a mirror to society through a heritage which is 'Part of Us' because we are our history, and this is our cultural identity. Every generation, monument, artefact, language, specimen, and celebration has a story to share. Heritage Malta ensures that the stories are preserved for posterity and are made accessible for everyone, everywhere to experience and enjoy.
